Chandler is trapped in an ATM vestibule with Jill Goodacre.

The rest of the gang hangs out at Monica and Rachel's apartment.

Ugly Naked Guy lights a bunch of candles and has a slight accident.

While trying to share his feelings with Rachel, Ross is attacked by a cat.

He tries to claim the cat, but it obviously isn't his.

The cat turns out to belong to Paolo, an Italian hunk who lives in the building and doesn't speak much English.

It is unusual in that it is composed of a very large circulating public library system combined with a very large non-lending(adj. 不出借书刊资料) research library system. It is simultaneously one of the largest public library systems in the United States and one of the largest research library systems. It is a privately managed, nonprofit corporation with a public mission, operating with both private and public financing. Its flagship building, on Fifth Ave. running from 40th to 42nd Street in Manhattan, is a National Historic Landmark. The historian David McCullough has described the New York Public Library as one of the five most important libraries in America, the others being the Library of Congress, the Boston Public Library, and the university libraries of Harvard and Yale. Although it is called the New York Public Library it does not cover all five boroughs of America's largest city. New York City does not have a single public library system but three of them. The other two are the Brooklyn Public Library and the Queens Borough Public Library. Currently, the New York Public Library consists of 86 libraries in the Bronx, Manhattan, and Staten Island: four non-lending research libraries, four main lending libraries, a library for the blind and physically handicapped, and 77 neighborhood branch libraries. All libraries in the NYPL system may be used free of charge by all visitors.
