盖瑞决定邀菲比同居。

菲比认为时机不够成熟，盖瑞黯然神伤，菲比被迫就范。

最终他们同居了：：次日晨，盖瑞举枪射杀了一只窗外啁啾的小鸟。菲比同他散伙。

罗斯和乔伊来回掷球，数小时未落地。后来莫妮卡和钱德也加入。

约 10 小时后，他们邀请菲比参加；

不幸的是，她把球搁在了桌上。

瑞秋花一千美金买了一只纯种无毛的狮身人面猫，因为在她的幼年时代，她祖母家就有一只这样的猫。

但此猫非彼猫，不那么驯良，结果瑞秋只得将它卖给了阿甘，还小赚了一笔。

阿甘以为自己买了只狐狸。

5.21 The One With The Ball

Gary decides to ask Phoebe to live with him.

She doesn't think it's a good idea, which makes him sad, so she ends up agreeing.

After some changes of heart (back and forth) they finally move in together... until one morning Gary shoots a bird that's chirping(v. 吱喳而鸣) outside the window.

Phoebe breaks up with him.

Ross and Joey throw a ball back and forth without dropping it for a couple hours;

soon it becomes a contest, joined by Monica and Chandler.

Around the tenth hour, they invite Phoebe to join;

unfortunatly, she doesn't feel like playing.

Rachel spends a thousand dollars on a pure-bred, hairless Sphinx cat, like the one her grandmother had when Rachel was a kid.

Unfortunately, this cat is not very nice, and a scratched-up Rachel ends up selling the cat to Gunther.

[Cut to Gary and Monica at the counter.]

Monica: So it looks like it's going really well for you two, huh?

Gary: I know, really well. In fact, I'm gonna ask Phoebe to move in with me.

Monica: (shocked) Oh my God!

Gary: What do you, what do you think?

Monica: I think that is so great! When are you gonna ask her?

Gary: Tonight, but don't say anything. Okay?

Monica: I swear, I promise. I promise. Oh my God, I'm so excited! {And I just can't hide it! I'm about to lose control and I think I like it!} Sorry, just couldn't resist it.} All right, listen let me tell you, do not get her flowers. Okay? (Gary exits and Monica rejoins them.)

Phoebe: So, what movie should we see?

Opening Credits

[Scene: Monica and Rachel's, Joey and Ross are playing catch with a little foam globe.]

Joey: Hey Ross, is uh, is Staten Island really an island?

Ross: Uh-huh, that's why they call it Staten Island.

Staten Island 'Long Island' 乔伊问罗斯一个蠢问题：斯塔滕岛 (Staten island) 真的是一个岛吗？罗斯说：‘当然是了’。乔伊说：‘是吗’。我还一位是像长岛 (Long Island) 一样不是一个岛呢。罗斯惊讶地说：‘可那也是一个岛’。斯塔滕岛是纽约五大区中的一个。‘它确实是一个岛’。长岛也是纽约的一个地名。‘是富人聚居区’。‘它也是一个岛’。/ Staten Island is one of the five boroughs of New York City. Situated on an island of the same name that is the most geographically separate of the city's boroughs, Staten Island is the least populated of the five boroughs. The Borough of Staten Island is coterminous (adj. 相互连接的) with Richmond County, the southernmost (adj. 最南的) county in the state of New York. Until 1975 the borough was officially named the Borough of Richmond.

Staten Island, in yellow, lies to the southwest of the rest of New York City.

Joey: Ohhh. I thought it was like Long Island.

Long Island is an island in southeast New York, USA. It has an area of 1,377 square miles (3,567 km²) and a population of 7,448,618 as of the 2000 census, with the population estimated at 7,559,372 as of July 1, 2006, making it the largest island in the 48 contiguous (adj. 毗邻的) U.S. states and the most populated in any U.S. state or territory. It is the 17th most populous island in the world, ahead of Ireland, Jamaica and the Japanese island of Hokkaidō (n. 北海道). Its population density is 5,470 people per square mile (2,110 per km²). True to its name, the island is much longer than it is wide, jutting out (v. 伸出) some 118 miles (190 km) from New York Harbor, with only from 12 to 20 miles (32 km) between the southern Atlantic coast and Long Island Sound. The Native American name for Long Island is Paumanok, meaning "The Island that Pays Tribute" | more warlike (adj. 尚武的) tribes in the surrounding areas forced the relatively peaceful Long Islanders to give tributes (n. 贡品) and payment to avoid attacks.

Long Island is known for its affluence and high quality of life. According to the 2000 Census, Nassau County is the second richest county per capita in New York State (behind New York County, which is coterminous with (adj. 相连的) the New York City borough of Manhattan) and the fifth richest in the United States. Suffolk County is known for beach towns, including the world-renowned Hamptons, and for the most eastern part of the Island, Montauk Point, home of Montauk Lighthouse.

Long Island is also known for its strong middle class accenting a strong dedication to hard work, suburban homeownership (n. 私房业主), investment in schools and education and people who are strongly committed to family living and local community events. Many of these are second (or third) generation families who had originally come from Brooklyn and Queens, seeking the space and tranquility (n. 宁静) of the early suburbs. In particular, a strong Brooklyn orientation remains among many of these families. Long Island (Nassau-Suffolk) has the second highest property taxes in the United States

Ross: (he catches the ball and pauses, staring at Joey in disbelief)
Also an island.

(The game resumes.)

Joey: Hey, what time is it?

Ross: (looks at his watch) 2:17.

Joey: Wow! You realize that we've been throwing this ball, without dropping it, for like an hour?

Ross: Are you serious?!

Joey: Yeah. I realized it about a half-hour ago but I didn't want to say anything 'cause I didn't want to jinx it.

jinx 'A superstitious term meaning to give something bad luck or misfortune n. 不祥的物(或人) 厄运 vt. 使倒霉

Ross: Wow! We are pretty good at this! Hey! We totally forgot about lunch!

Joey: Oh, I-I, I think that's the first time I ever missed a meal! (Checks his pants.) Yeah, my pants are a little loose!

Rachel: (entering) Hey, you guys :

Joey: Hey!

Rachel: Is Monica here?

Joey and Ross: No.

Rachel: All right listen umm, I just bought something I'm not sure she's gonna like it, and it's gonna seem a little crazy, but this is something that I wanted since I was a little girl.

Ross: You bought Shaun Cassidy!

Shaun Cassidy :瑞秋买了一只猫 °她让别人猜他买了什么 :—这是我从小女孩时就希望买到的 °—罗斯说 :—你买了肖恩·卡西迪(Shaun Cassidy) °—瑞秋说 :—哦 '我希望能 '但我买了一只猫 °—肖恩·卡西迪是美国演艺界著名的才子 '既能演戏 '也能导演 '还能为肥皂剧写剧本/Shawn Paul Cassidy (born September 27, 1958 in Los Angeles, California) is an American singer, actor and TV producer. The eldest of Broadway entertainer Jack Cassidy's and actress Shirley Jones's three sons, Cassidy was inspired by the success of his half-brother David Cassidy of TV's The Partridge(<美>鹌鹑) Family. He went to Beverly Hills High School. He released several successful singles in the late 1970s. His first single, "Morning Girl", a The Neon Phil-harmonic(adj. 爱好音乐的) classic, didn't chart(v. 上榜) in the USA but did well in the Low Countries. His second single, a cover version of The Crystals' "Da Doo Ron Ron", hit #1 in the United States in 1977, and he, like David, became a major teen idol. He achieved two further top ten singles with cover versions of Eric Carmen's "That's Rock 'N' Roll" and "Hey Deanie" the same year. Cassidy and his mother Shirley Jones of the Partridge Family are the only mother and son to each have a song reach #1 on the Billboard Hot 100 charts.

Rachel: Noo! I wish! Okay, you ready?

Joey and Ross: Yeah!

Rachel: Okay! (She goes and gets her surprise and when she returns with it, Ross stares in shock.) Check it out!

(Joey turns and looks at quite possibly one of the ugliest pets that you can possibly buy on the planet. Rachel has bought herself a hairless cat. Yep, a hairless cat! Joey and Ross start to get sick.)

Ross: What-what is it?!

Joey: What the hell is that?!!

The Sphynx (aka[also known as 亦称为,又叫做] Canadian Hairless) is a rare breed of cat with extremely little fur, or at most a short fuzz(n. 绒毛) over its body, and no, or very short and stiff whiskers(n. 腮须) (vibrissae[n. 触须]). Their skin is the color their fur would be, and all the usual cat marking patterns (solid, point, van, tabby, tortie, etc) may be found in Sphynx too. They are sometimes mistaken for Chihuahuas[n. 吉娃娃(一种产于墨西哥的狗)] because of their extremely unusual and, some say, uncatlike appearance. They are extremely intelligent, extroverted(adj. 外向型的), and affectionate(adj. 温柔亲切的), often cuddling with their owners, other humans, and each other.

Ross: How much did you pay for that?

Rachel: Well, it was a little extravagant, but I got a pretty good deal.

extravagant adj. 奢侈的 浪费的

Ross: Yeah? How much?

Rachel: A thousand bucks.

Ross: ON A CAT??!!!!

Joey: It's not a cat!

Ross: For a thousand dollars, you'd think at least it'd come with hair.

Joey: Or something.

Rachel: All right listen ball boys! My grandmother had one of these when I was a little girl and it was the sweetest thing! I mean it was so cute, it would sit in my lap and purr all day long, and I would drag a shoestring on the ground and he would chase it!

Gary: Hey Chandler, what are you doing here?

Chandler: Gary, I'm here to report a crime.

Gary: Yeah?

Chandler: It is a crime that you and I don't spend more time together.

Gary: (laughs, then suddenly serious) What's up?

Chandler: Well, I heard that you thinking about asking Phoebe to move in with you and I thought maybe, we should have a talk. Man to uh, me.

Gary: Sure. Okay.

Chandler: Uh, are you crazy? Are you insane? If you live with Phoebe, you two are gonna be y'know, live-living together!

Gary: Yeah, I-I considered that. I just know it would make me happy.

Chandler: You mean scared.

Gary: No, I mean happy.

Chandler: Scared? Happy?

Gary: Chandler, what-what are you doing?

Chandler: I am trying to open your eyes, my man! Don't you see, if you lived with Phoebe she's always gonna be there. You're gonna get home, she's there. You go to bed, she's there. You wake up and oh yes, she's there!

Gary: I know! I can't wait!

Chandler: Were your parents happy, or something?

Gary: Listen Chandler, the way I see it is that I was lucky enough to find someone that I really love. I just | I wanna be around her as much as I can.

Chandler: Wow, y'know when you say it, it doesn't sound so scary.

Gary: So you know what I'm talking about, right?

Chandler: Yeah, I think I do! Y'know what? You move in with her! You move in with her right now! Maybe I should move in with Monica!

Gary: No, it's too soon for you guys.

Chandler: (pause) Yeah, you're right about that 你说的很对.

Monica: Guys, could you please just stop throwing the ball for one minute and just help me find it!

Rachel: Oh yeah, I got a cat.

Monica: I don't want a cat!

Joey: Oh, don't worry, it's not a cat.

Ross: Yeah.

Rachel: You guys this cat is nothing like my grandmother's cat. [Scene: Central Perk, Phoebe is drinking coffee as Chandler enters.]

[Scene: Gary's precinct, Phoebe is entering.]

Gary: Hey, honey! Okay, so did you find any apartments? Anything in Brooklyn Heights?

Brooklyn Heights is a neighborhood within the New York City borough of Brooklyn; originally designated through popular reference as 'Brooklyn Village', it has, since 1834, become a prominent area of the Brooklyn borough. As of 2000, the Brooklyn Heights sustained a population of 22,493 people. The neighborhood is part of Brooklyn Community Board 2. Brooklyn Heights stretches from Fulton Street near the Brooklyn Bridge south to Atlantic Avenue and from the East River east to Court Street and Cadman Plaza. Adjacent neighborhoods are : DUMBO, Downtown Brooklyn, Cobble Hill and Boerum Hill. It is directly across the East River, and easily accessible via the Downtown and multiple subway lines. The area was heavily fortified (adj. 军事工事加强的) prior to the largest battle of the American Revolutionary War - The Battle of Long Island (also known as The Battle of Brooklyn). After British troops landed on Long Island and advanced towards Continental Army lines, General George Washington withdrew his troops here after heavy losses, but was able to make a skillful retreat across the East River to Manhattan without the loss of any troops or his remaining supplies.

Phoebe: No, nothing.

Gary: Oh really?

Phoebe: Yeah.

Gary: Nothing at all?

Phoebe: No, as soon as something opens up we'll move right in. Unless it doesn't have a pool, I need a pool. (Turns away from him.)

Gary: Phoebe, can I talk to you for a second?

Phoebe: Uh-huh!

Phoebe: Yes. Yes! Fine! I ~~am~~ someone! You want me to say it? I have doubts! (Pause) I'm sorry! (Puts her head down.)

Gary: Phoebe :

Phoebe: Yeah?

Gary: Phoebe, it's okay that you feel this way. I mean it ~~is~~ soon. And there's a lot of things we don't know about each other, and I just figure that everything I know about you, I really like. And the things I don't know, I get to learn about at someplace with both our names on the mailbox.

Phoebe: That's so sweet.

Gary: Sweetheart, but none of that matters if it's too soon for you. It's fine! We don't have to move in together. I just | I want you to be happy

Phoebe: Living with you would make me happy.

Gary: Phoebe, you ~~don't~~ have to say that.

Phoebe: No, I really wanna live with you! I wanna move in with you!

Gary: Are you sure?

Phoebe: Yes. Definitely! Yes! Let's live in an apartment that we both live in! (Hugs him.)

Gary: Oh that's great!

Phoebe: Oh wait, one sec. One sec. (Goes to the mirror) Hey you! Behind the glass! Who are you looking at! I've always wanted to say that when I was in one of these rooms, (sees the look on his face) which was never!

Woman No. 2: What?!

Rachel: Okay, a thousand.

Woman No. 2: I thought you wanted to adopt your cat.

[Scene: Central Perk, everyone is there.]

Joey: Man that was great! Huh? Can you believe how long we threw that ball around?

Rachel: Yeah, it is amazing it lasted that long.

Ross: I know. My arm is killing me.

Rachel: No, I meant with the dropper over here. (Points at Chandler.)

Chandler: Y'know, how did I get this reputation as a dropper? Okay? I'm anything but a dropper. (We see various scenes of him dropping a football, a mug of coffee, the phone, an apple, a Frisbee, a record, and the final scene has a ball bouncing off of his chest. I'm not going to describe them, you'll have to see them.)

Flying discs (commonly called Frisbees) are disc-shaped objects, which are generally plastic and roughly 20 to 25 centimeters (8-10 inches) in diameter(n. 直径), with a lip(n. 唇缘). The shape of the disc, an airfoil(n. 螺旋桨) in cross-section(n. 横截面), allows it to fly by generating lift as it moves through the air while rotating. The name Frisbee is a registered trademark of the Wham-O toy company, but is often used generically(adv. 一般地) to describe all flying discs. 飞盘~塑料投掷玩具~

"The One With the Ball" is the 21st episode of season 5 of the sitcom Friends.

First aired: May 6, 1999

1 Plot

The show opens in Central Perk. Gary, Phoebe's boyfriend, tells Monica that he's planning to ask Phoebe to move in with him. He swears Monica to secrecy; she agrees not to tell, but also warns him not to buy her flowers, since Phoebe cries when they die, and gives them a funeral.

Despite her promise, Monica can't keep the news to herself and tells Phoebe as soon as Gary leaves. Phoebe, worried that it's too soon for them to be living together, lines up someone to talk some "sense" into him: longtime commitment-phobe Chandler. After swearing to Monica that he's not that much of a commitment-phobe anymore, he tells Phoebe he'll do it. Gary, however, will hear none of it and insists on asking her anyway. A reluctant Phoebe, afraid of hurting Gary's feelings, agrees to move in with him. Meanwhile,

Joey and Ross start playing catch with a small rubber ball. An hour goes by before they realize how long they've been tossing it back and forth — Joey, uncharacteristically (adv. 非同寻常地), even misses lunch. They then decide to see how long they can throw the ball back and forth without dropping it.

While Joey and Ross are tossing the ball around, Rachel walks in after a day of shopping. She's just spent $1,000 on something Monica isn't going to like — a purebred, hairless Sphinx cat named Mrs. Whiskerson ("What am I gonna call her, Fluffy?"). Her grandmother had one when she was a little girl, Rachel explains, and she's always wanted one. So she bought one, ignoring the fact that Ross and Joey think it's hideous (adj. 可怕的). Joey even refuses to believe that it's a cat.

Soon, Monica joins in the guys' ball game. Her competitive nature gets the best of (v. 胜过... 对... 占优势) her, and she calls in sick to work just so she can be a part of the epic game. She gets upset when Chandler wants to join in, as she considers him "a dropper" who will end the game prematurely(adv.过早地). She's also not pleased to learn that Rachel spent so much money on a cat, since Rachel already owes her money.

Even Rachel starts to regret the purchase, as the cat is mean and scratches Rachel at every opportunity. The shop she bought it from only will let her return it for store credit ("What am I gonna do, buy 1,000 regular cats?"). So now, she says, "I'm out a thousand dollars, I'm all scratched up, and I'm stuck with this stupid cat that looks like a hand!"

Gary asks Phoebe to look for apartments. Phoebe, still apprehensive(adj. 忧虑的 恐惧的) about moving in with him, claims that there weren't any available. Gary uses his police training in interrogation techniques and figures out that she thinks things are moving too fast. She finally admits the truth, but then realizes what a great guy Gary is, and agrees to move in with him for real.

Rachel, after having little success selling Mrs. Whiskerson, finally finds a willing buyer - Gunther. He promises her she can come visit her pet whenever she wants; the hope of such visits is evidently his motive for buying the animal, as his next question makes evident he doesn't know what kind of creature it is, "Hey, so what is this? Some kind of snake or something?"

The next morning, Phoebe and Gary are relaxing in bed at their new apartment. Just as Phoebe is congratulating herself, Gary pulls out his service pistol and kills a bird who is disturbing his rest by chirping outside their window. Since Phoebe is an animal-lover, she ends the relationship.

Come morning, the ball game is still going on. Chandler (much to Monica's chagrin[n.气愤 懊恼]) and Rachel have now joined, and everyone's getting tired and hungry, except for Monica. Phoebe comes in and breaks the bad news about Gary. Joey tosses her the ball to cheer her up, but Phoebe's too sad to play and sets the ball down, thus ending the game.

Over the closing credits, the gang talks about how long the ball game went on. Chandler can't understand how he got the reputation as a "dropper," a line that is followed by a montage(n.蒙太奇) of clips showing Chandler dropping things.
