518 瑞秋开始吸烟

班参加广告试镜，乔伊也去淘机会。

乔伊和班不像，所以和另一个小孩搭档演父子，与班这一对角逐。

乔伊记不清台词。

瑞秋到新公司 Ralph Lauren 上班；

她发现重大决定都在吸烟时间被制定了，自己根本插不上嘴。于是她努力学习抽烟；

要染上烟瘾原来也挺难的，于是她开始劝告同事们戒烟：：戒烟只坚持了一天。

菲比和莫妮卡为瑞秋的生日设计了一个惊喜派对。

莫妮卡一贯的风格便是全盘包办，菲比只得打点小杂，管管杯子和冰块。

菲比不甘只当小配角，于是用杯子装所有食物，并把冰块做得花样百出。

5.18 The One Where Rachel Smokes

Ben auditions for a soup commercial and Joey comes along to try for a part as well.

Things are going great until Joey gets paired with another child and it gets competitive.

Joey has a little trouble with his line, however.

Rachel starts her new job at Ralph Lauren;

she soon feels left out because all the decisions get made on smoking breaks, and she doesn't smoke.

She tries to solve the problem by taking up the habit;

it doesn't work out too well, so she convinces her co-workers to quit... but that lasts about a day.

Phoebe and Monica plan a surprise birthday party for Rachel.

Monica, in her usual fashion, takes over completely, leaving Phoebe in charge of only cups and ice.

Phoebe decides to make the most of (v. 尽量利用 充分利用) it; she makes everything imaginable out of cups, and serves every kind of ice.

[Scene: Central Perk, Joey, Chandler, Monica, and Phoebe are there. Joey is holding a deck of cards out to Chandler.]

Chandler: Oh yes.

Joey: (holding up the Queen of Clubs) Is that your card? (He winks and smiles.)

Chandler: (pause) Yes.

(Joey laughs then realizes the trick didn't work when Chandler hands him his card back.)

Carol: (entering with Ben and Ross) Hey guys!

Ross: Hi!

Chandler: Hi there!

Ben: Hi!!

Carol: Guess what? Ben is going to be in a TV commercial!

A television advertisement or commercial (often called an advert in the United Kingdom) is a form of advertising in which goods, services, organizations, ideas, etc. are promoted via the medium of television. Most commercials are produced by an outside advertising agency(n. 广告公司 广告商) and airtime(n. 电影或电视节目开始的时间) is purchased from a Media Agency or direct from the TV channel or network. In the UK television advertising is charged based on the viewing figures and the agreed cost per thousand viewers. The first television advertisement was broadcast in the United States at 14:29 on July 1, 1941, when the Bulova Watch Company paid $9 to New York City NBC affiliate WNBT (now WNBC) for a 20-second spot aired before a baseball game between the Brooklyn Dodgers and Philadelphia Phillies. It simply displayed a Bulova watch over a map of the U.S., with a voiceover of the company's slogan "America runs on Bulova time!" The vast majority of television advertisements today consist of brief advertising spots, ranging in length from a few seconds to several minutes (as well as program-length infomercials). Advertisements of this sort have been used to sell every product imaginable over the years, from household products to goods and services, to political campaigns. The effect of television advertisements upon the viewing public has been so successful and so pervasive(adj. 普遍深入的) that it is considered impossible for a politician to wage a successful election campaign, in the United States, without use of television advertising

Phoebe: What are you talking about?!

Ross: (sets Ben down) Well, it's not for sure but umm, we met this guy in the park who thought Ben was really cute--y'know, which he is--so umm anyhow, he uh, he gave us his card and told us to bring him down for this commercial he's auditioning.

I've been in that park a million times and no one offered me an audition.

Joey: Whoa-whoa dad? There's a dad in the commercial?

Ross: Yeah the dad and Ben eat soup and pretend to enjoy it.

Joey: Whoa, hey, maybe I'll go down there with ya and see if I can get an audition to play the dad. I mean who better to play Ben's father than his godfather.

This edition gives a priority focus to East Coast show business news and is produced earlier in the evening than the Los Angeles version so it can be delivered to New York offices the following morning.

Joey: Oh yeah, yeah! He's done tons of commercials. I've seen him in like Sugar Smacks, Playstation, and that one for the phone company. In fact he was so good in that one, he actually convinced me to switch phone companies. Chandler was mad:.

Honey Smacks is a sweetened puffed(adj. 膨胀的) wheat breakfast cereal made by Kellogg's. Introduced in 1953, the cereal has undergone several name changes. It started out as Sugar Smacks. In the 1980s, it was renamed Honey Smacks. In the early 1990s, it had been discovered that the current mascot(n. 吉祥物), Dig 'Em Frog, was just calling the cereal "Smacks", so the word "Honey" was dropped from the name, and the product was then simply called Smacks. In 2004, the cereal was given back the name Honey Smacks, which is now its current name. It is known in Mexico as SMAK. In Europe, they have always been known as Smacks

By March 2005, the PlayStation/PSone had shipped a total of over 100.49 million units, becoming the first home console to ever reach the 100 million mark.

Ross: Yeah well, he's not gonna get this one. Ben is way cuter than that kid. I mean look at him, look at you, (Starts to whine like a baby and Joey just glares at him.)

Joey: That's great. Listen, wouldn't it be great though if I got to play Ben's dad?

Ross: Joey, you look nothing like Ben.

Joey: I look more like him than you do! (He winks at Carol.)

Carol: Y'know, I don't really know you well enough for you to do that.

[Scene: Kim's s office and with Nancy and Rachel. Together they're deciding what clothes to buy or something]

Rachel 'So I think that if we get these samples into the magazine by Monday, we'll be fine.

Kim 'Sounds good. So, Rach, how you doing?

Rachel 'I'm great!

Kin 'No, with the not-smoking thing.

Rachel 'Kill me now. Let me tell you something, I ate 40 mallomars today. I mean, I have patches all over my body, you know? I mean, I haven't slept in two days.

Mallomars are a kind of cookie in the marshmallow(n. 棉花糖) sandwich genre, produced seasonally at Nabisco. A circle of Graham cracker(全麦粉饼干) is covered with a puff of extruded(adj. 挤压的) marshmallow, then enrobed (not dipped) in a hard dark chocolate shell. Mallomars were introduced to the public in 1913, the same year as the Moon Pie (a confection[n. 糖果] which has similar ingredients). The first box of Mallomars was sold in West Hoboken, NJ (now Union City, NJ). Nabisco discusses it with a short story(n. 超短篇小说(指一万字以内的小说)) printed on Mallomar boxes. Because Mallomars melt easily in summer temperatures, they can become difficult to find during the summer: they are generally available from early October through April. Devoted eaters of the cookie have been known to stock up during winter months and keep them refrigerated over the summer. Seventy percent of all Mallomars sold are sold in metropolitan New York, and a majority of the rest are sold in outlets such as Miami and Los Angeles 好丽友派
